

Jisha Padmanabhan, BHMS, CCH
Assistant Treasurer

Dr. Jisha Padmanabhan, BHMS, CCH is a trusted, patient-focused homeopathic doctor with demonstrated knowledge and competence in the field of homeopathy. She completed a Bachelor of Homeopathic Medicine and Surgery (BHMS), which is a four and a half year bachelor's degree plus one year internship, from Mahatma Gandhi University, Kerala, India, in 2013. Since then, she practiced homeopathy in India until moving to the US in 2017. Now, she is a proud member of the Council for Homeopathic Certification Board after earning the CCH credential in 2018.

Jisha's genuine caring nature and her ability to holistically understand each individual who approaches are true gifts to her homeopathy practice. She is a Certified Practitioner of Classical Homeopathy with a vision to maintain the integrity of Homeopathy.
