

Heidi Fung
CHC Director and Public Member

Heidi Fung is an independent strategy advisor and serves on nonprofit boards and committees in development and strategic planning roles. Previously, Heidi was an Associate Partner at Monitor Group (now Monitor Deloitte). She developed corporate and business unit strategy for Fortune 50 consumer products and life sciences companies and nonprofits in the US, Europe, Asia, and Africa.

Homeopathy has helped Heidi and her children heal from severe eczema, acute illnesses and grow out of many food allergies. She believes in the powerful way homeopathy can free people from chronic illness and bring them back to balance and health.

Heidi graduated with a B.A. in Political Science from Yale University and an M.Phil in Politics from Oxford University. She lives in San Francisco, CA with her husband, daughter, and son.
